Copenhagen, Sept. 15, N. S. The King of Denmark, accompanied by the Queen, the Princess Charlotte, and the Margravine, came to the Palace of Fridericksberg on the 11th past, and this Morning their Majesties are set out again for Friedensburg. During the Court's short Stay in this Neighbourhood, the King was every Day in Town, and sometimes twice a Day. His Majesty dined Yesterday in publick, and seems very happily recovered of his late Illness. On the 13th he assisted at the launching of the Fyen, a new built Ship of Fifty Guns, and of the Laland and Langelandt, two small Brigantines. His Majesty expressed himself to be very well satisfied with their Building, and was pleased to confer the Character of Rear Admiral upon M. Suhme, who has the Inspection of the Holm under his Excellency Count Danneskiold. These Ships are the first that have been built since those Gentlemen have had the chief Direction of the Sea Affairs. M. Stutterhiem, who was the Danish Resident at Hambourg, died there last Week.

Dresden, Sept. 19, N. S. His Polish Majesty has made the Prince Royal Governour of Lusatia, being an Office which is always given to the Heir of this Electorate. The Polish Resident at Constantinople has writ to this Court, that the Sultan had at last declared the News of the Russians having taken Asoph, and the Lines of Perecop; which had caused great Consternation among the People. The Grand Vizier is arrived with his Army at Babada. Count Wratislaus has obtained Leave to go to Bohemia, from whence, after a short Stay, he will proceed to the Court of Vienna and return hither towards the latter End of November.

Hague, Sept. 25, N. S. M. Grevenbroek, the Elector Palatine's Minister at the Court of France, arrived here some Days ago from Manheim on his Return to his Post. The Pretext that this Minister gives out for taking this Place in his Way, and staying here, as he designs, a short Time, is to see the Country; but it is supposed he has Orders to sound the Intentions of People here, or to intimate those of his Court upon the Affair of Bergues and Juliers. M. Van Hoey left Paris on the 13th Instant, and arrived here the 17th. The Prince of Orange, with the Princess Royal his Consort, are expected here To-morrow Night: Part of their Court and Retinue being already arrived.

Hanover, Sept. 23, N. S. His Majesty sets out early To-morrow Morning from Herrenhausen, in order to proceed to Giffhorn, which Place is within one German Mile of

Zelle,
